

2014 The 5th MnCrNi & SSteel International Conference

Dear Delegates:

2014 MnCrNi & SSteel International Conference, organized by Ferro-Alloys.com and supported by Jiaocheng Yiwang Ferroalloy Co.,Ltd, Taiyuan Iron & Steel (Group) Co., Ltd (TISCO), International Chromium Development Association (ICDA), China Ferroalloy Industry Association, will be held on October 16th-18th, 2014, in Taiyuan Garden International Hotel (Five-Star Hotel) , Shanxi Province, China.

The purpose for you to attend this conference is to make better knowledge on Chinese economic situation, what opportunities and challenges ferroalloy industry will meet and how it will impact major ore products; How the major ore traders will determine future ore price; It is certain that major exporters including South Africa and Indonesia will control ore export or increase export tariff, then how it will influence world's Nickel and Manganese ore market; After a long dive in the first half year, how the import market will go and what change will it meet in supply-demand; Global nickel industry has suffered from the surge of nickel metal price since the Government of Indonesia set the ban on raw ore in January 2014, but how future Ni ore market will change; As stainless steel market improves in Europe and America, what the global positive trend will affect China's Cr ore market; How the backward capacity elimination policy and energy conservation & emission reduction policy in China will influence ferroalloy industry.

We sincerely invite international Mn, Cr and Ni ores exporters and Chinese ores importers as well as manufacturers of Mn alloy, EMM, FeCr, FeNi and stainless steel to attend the conference.
